today reported that several other ressels, most of them fishing craft, are ieved to have been lost.

Life-saving stations at a number of points along the coast reported rescues. Disabled ships drifting helpless before the gale were also reported.

The tempest was one of high wind and driving rain, and at points along the coast the beaches were strewn with wreckage. Cromer is known in marine circlés as a dangerous place. Treacherous tides and currents run off the promontories at that point, and the waves beat with terrific force against the great sea wall.

Fatalities In New England.

BOSTON, Oct. 3 .- Advices received here today indicate that two persons

Are dead, seven others missing, and a score more or less seriously injured as a result of the terrific gale which swept over New England and southern Canada. causing a damage of $100,000.

Former State Senator George W. Stone of Jay, Maine, was killed by a branch blown from a tree near his home.

Richard Eillings, jr., was killed by a bolt of lightning while driving horses for his father, who was plowing a field on their farm in York county. Both horses were killed by the stroke and fell over on the boy burying him beneath them. "A search is being made for four Portuguese fishermen who left Lawrence in a yacht for Minery Island, Salem harbor. No trace of them has been found. It is thought the boat capsized in the storm and the four men were drowned.

How Mounted Policeman John T. Norris saved his life by a remarkable feat of horsemanship is told in a letter received today by The Times from Joseph F. Rodgers, of Alexandria, Va. Mr. Rodgers states that he was crossing Twelfth street, between Pennsylvania avenue and D street, when he noticed the police patrol wagon coming down the street at breakneck speed. He says he stopped about eight feet from the curbing to let the wagon pass, and as it passed he stepped out to get a glance at the prisoner. Up behind came the mount-

SPECIAL NOTICES

First Consideration in Buying That

The P. B. clientele represents a class of men whose first consideration in the buying of clothes is quality—men to whom mere price arguments would mean nothing but proof of quality-weakness. We talk to you of quality, but not at the expense of economy.

P. B. clothes for men are sold solely on their merit, and the original prices, plainly marked on the garments, are based on the lowest possible margin of profit. Consequently we take especial pleasure in inviting comparisons.

Clever salesmanship will not be necessary to emphasize the points of superiority—they're obvious.

Take any line you choose—from the $10.00 young men's models through the easy grades to the $40.00 models produced in exclusive imported weaves (they are arranged in plain view in the crystal cabinets for your convenience). Slip into a coat here and there and let the mirrors tell the story.

The $20.00 and $25.00 Lines represent "quality" and "assortment" that, a few years ago, would have been considered out of the question.

OFFICE OF THE Washington Gas Light Company, 413-17 TENTH STREET N. W.

Washington City, D. C.,
September 13, 1910.

Two meetings of directors of business organizations are scheduled for this afternoon.

The board of governors of the Retail Merchants' Association is to meet at 3 o'clock at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce to discuss action to be taken at the meeting of the whole association which is to meet on Wednesday night. The completion of the organization of the association is planned for that meeting.

The first meeting of the board of the stockholders of the Washington Gas Light Company is called by the Board of Directors of that Company for, and will be held on, Friday, the fourteenth day of October, 1910, at 12 o'clock M., at the principal office of the Company, No. 413 Tenth Street northwest, in the City of Washington, D. C., to transact such business as may properly come before said meeting, and especially to consider and approve or otherwise act upon the following propagation.

bonds in open market, shall so many of the stockholders of the company at a given date as shall avail themselves of the privilege within a it-nited time be entitled to subscribe and pay for the said bonds at their face value, said privilege of subscription and payment to be proportional to the holdings of the respective stockholders? Shall said privilege next hereinbefore referred to apply also to so much of said new issue or issues of bonds as shall be required for financiag betterments?

All subordinate propositions embraced in and pertinent to the said main propositions above stated shall, to the necessary extent, be considered and acted upon by the said stockholders' meeting.

According to the charter and by-laws of the Washington Gas Light Company, only such stockholders are allowed to vote at any meeting of the stockholders as shall have been holders of the certificates of stock of the said Company in their own and proper names for the period of fourteen days previous to any stockholders' meeting. In order that all stockholders may have an opportunity to have their stock thus registered in the books of the Company, the stock transfer books of the Company will be closed at close of business at 3 p. m. on Thursday, the 28th day of September, 1910, and will remain closed until the close of business at 3 p. m. on Friday, the 14th day of October, 1910; and all holders of stock as aforesaid who shall be such at the close of business on said 28th day of September, 1910, will be entitled to vote at the special meeting of the stock-holders hereby called for Friday, the 14th day of October, 1910; and all holders of tock as aforesaid who shall be such at the close of business on said 28th day of September, 1910, will be entitled to vote at the special meeting of the stock-holders hereby called for Friday, the 14th day of October, 1910.

The polls will be open from 12 o'clock m. until 1 o'clock p. m. Respectfully, BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE WASHINGTON GAS LIGHT COM-FrANY.
